Visitors will discover that the lookouts, waterfalls and views of the gorges are easily accessible from the carparks along well maintained walking tracks. There are many fabulous bushwalking trails with rewarding views. From short walks to multi-day hikes there is something for everyone. If you are seeking something more challenging then check out the Green Gully Track, Washpool World Heritage Walk and the New England Wilderness Walk.

The region has a lot to offer mountain bikers and gravel cyclists, with scenic trails in Washpool National Park, Bald Rock, Boonoo Boonoo and Basket Swamp National Parks. Gravel cyclists will enjoy the plethora of day and multi day cycling routes and off road adventures on offer. The Bicentennial Trail traverses through the region offering mountain bikers and horse riders a unique expedition experience. Additionally, local clubs in Armidale and Guyra have purpose built competition biking tracks to explore.

Fossicking for gemstones and gold is an age old pastime. During the boom of the 1970s, Inverell was supplying 75% of the world's sapphire market. Other areas you may try your luck are in the rivers around Uralla and Glen Innes. Whilst you are in the region pop into the Emmaville Mining Museum with over 4,000 gem and mineral specimens and displays of the old mines.

In New England High Country, Rainbow and Brown Trout thrive in lightly-fished streams and purpose-built dams. Copeston Dam is three times the size of Sydney Harbour and one of the only inland waterways that has no closed season on Murray Cod.

inverell

- National Transport Museum
Discover over 100 years of transport in Australia with exhibits from around the nation. The museum is home to over 120 vintage, veteran and classic cars and motorcycles.
- Inverell Pioneer Village
From the moment you walk through the magnificent gateway of the Pioneer Village, you immediately sense the history that surrounds you. The authentic buildings of the village represent the lifestyle and pioneering spirit of our forebears.
- Copeston Dam
Copeston dam is a fisherman's paradise being one of two inland waterways in NSW with no closed season on Murray Cod. Many come chasing these massive metre long plus monsters with great success. The area is tranquil and the perfect place to set up camp whilst resetting and getting back to nature.
- Blair Athol Day Spa
Inspired by the Roman Bathhouses of the past the Day Spa houses a 10.5 m mineral-rich pool and a 6-person spa (filled with artesian spring water and rain water). Massage suites, sauna, beautiful views, beverages and delicious homemade food are just some of what makes for an incredible experience.
- Fossicking
Come and fossick for the magnificent deep blue sapphires that Inverell is famous for. There are options for complete beginners and seasoned fossickers. Crystals and other gems and minerals are available too. Don't miss a chance to take a part of the Sapphire City home with you.

road trip adventures

The journey to New England High Country promises to be one full of surprises, natural wonders and awe inspiring views. Whether you are arriving on motorbike, RV, towing a caravan or in a classic car, you will be able to experience arguably some of the most scenic drives in Australia.

Waterfall Way

The 185km Waterfall Way is one of the world's most breathtaking drives. The Waterfall Way promises a journey of wonder and amazement as you follow the flow of the water as it travels from the historic city of Armidale through five national parks until it arrives at the pristine beaches of the Coffs Coast. There are ancient Gondwana Forests, sweeping valleys, dramatic gorges and of course, lots of waterfalls. If short on time don't miss Wollomombi Gorge, Point Lookout, Ebor Falls and Dorrigo National Park.

Ebor Falls, Guy Fawkes River National Park

Thunderbolts Way

Entering New England High Country from the south via Walcha, Thunderbolts Way tops the list for its wide-open vistas of rolling farmland. Running from Gloucester in the pretty hinterland of the Mid-North Coast to Inverell on the QLD/NSW border, this 290km odyssey weaves over the Great Diving Range, climbs to 1400m and provides spectacular scenery at every turn.

Gwydir Highway

Gwydir Highway stretches from Grafton on the coast to Glen Innes and Inverell, where national park leads to national park covering an area of some 92,400 hectares. Highlights include Washpool National Park and Rasperry Lookout, which has extensive views across the gorge country.

Gibraltar Range National Park

Oxley Highway

The Oxley Highway, from Port Macquarie to Walcha, is possibly the most famous of rolling farmland, starting from the NSW Northern Rivers region and heading west to Tenterfield. The Oxley Highway climbs over 800 metres, taking you through open farmland, rolling hills, quaint villages and woodland forests. Offering spectacular scenery, you'll want to slow down and enjoy the drive as you cross the Clarence River and follow the Cataract River and gorge up to Tenterfield.

Apsley Falls, Oxley Wild Rivers National Park

Brunxer Highway

The Brunxer Highway winds its way up the Great Dividing Range, starting from the NSW Northern Rivers region and heading west to Tenterfield. The Brunxer Highway climbs over 800 metres, taking you through open farmland, rolling hills, quaint villages and woodland forests. Offering spectacular scenery, you'll want to slow down and enjoy the drive as you cross the Clarence River and follow the Cataract River and gorge up to Tenterfield.
