Eat, Drink & Shop

Glen Innes Highlands has the perfect climate to produce distinctive gourmet foods. You are in great company when you visit the areas many bistros, restaurants and cafes. International flavours such as Indian, Chinese and Thai can also be found in many of the eateries.

Warm up in the cooler months with a great coffee in one of our friendly café's and treat yourself to some homely cakes. Deepwater Brewing speciality beers can be found on tap at the Great Central Hotel along with locally warm mulled red wine. Or travel to the lovely village of Deepwater to taste at their cellar door.

If you love beef, lamb and pork, don't leave Glen Innes Highlands without savouring the superb New England products from our three butchers Campbell's, Hooper's and Bruce Family Butchery.

Glen Innes' bakeries take pride in their creativity, providing a wide range of breads, pastries and other foods.

Glengowrie Distillery has recently opened in the picturesque area of Furracabad, enjoy tasting locally made spirits at their cellar door.

The Super Strawberry, on Glen Innes's southern outskirts, produces and sells strawberries, strawberries and cream, jams, sauces, milk shakes, Byron Bay coffee, Guyra tomatoes, locally-produced potatoes and eggs, as well as giftware.
